

Lusin® Clean G 300

Chem-Trend L.P. - Thermoplastic

General Information

Product Description

Ready-to-use Purging Compound for Blow Moulding Machines and Extruders

Benefits

- Economical due to low consumption
- No smell during application
- Rapid cleaning effect
- NSF registered, conforms to H2 listing requirements

Description

Lusin® Clean G 300 is a ready to use granular purging compound for screw, barrel and heads of blow moulding machines and extruders.

The purging compound consists of high quality thermoplastic resins as well as highly efficient cleaning additives and does not contain abrasives. The purging compound can be used for processing temperatures up to 300°C (572°F).

Typical Properties

Appearance : White granules

General

| | |
|----------------|------------------------|
| Additive | • Unspecified Additive |
| Uses | • Purging Compound |
| Agency Ratings | • NSF |
| Appearance | • White |
| Forms | • Granules |